

The Rebel Body Swiss International Film Festival SIFF Award

Award Winners 2020

Congratulations to all the Winners of the Switzerland International Film Festival.

Since there were films with the same ratings in the "Short Films" and "Documentary Films" categories, we decided to include both films in the list of winners.

We are very grateful to all viewers for their help in evaluating such great movie masterpieces. It's a great honor for the Switzerland International Film Festival and for our team. We always say that we need to support each other in this difficult time for everyone.

All winners will be notified by mail on May 30-31, for awarding in the category in which they participated.
